I hold my own quite impressively, I think, until an hour later I announce that I Ladies and gentlemen, I am proud to introduce a true professional, an expert at his craft and my friend, Peter Brock. Author Peter Brock described Burns' interview with Herak as "a manipulated confession and interrogation in which Burns was the key participant. There is no vision. Robert J. Rational, polished, intellectual and always ready to use his sense of humor, he remained balanced, calm and detached during my frequent visits in the late s when post-Titoist Yugoslavia began falling apart and tensions and local suspicions were epidemic. It seems to me we are now at that moment.
