I even wake up before them so I can have my coffee and alone time to be refreshed.

Any advice for a working mum who wished she was just a GOOD mum??? If I am flaming mad and my eyes are watering and woe betide the next person who crosses my path... I walk out of the room before saying or doing. Not being able to voice my own misery or find the help that I knew I needed only served to make me feel like even more of a failure as a mom.

RealNews.Thank you so much and I pray your PPD clears up soon.
