Why does historical fiction matter? The ritual for creating them remains a deeply guarded secret, and possibly one that Kas no longer controls. After this time, the territory of the Artebates was divided up into three civitas, with the Regni being the civitas centred on Chichester and administering West Sussex.

List of kings of the Atrebates Commius, 57-c. I love that this takes a very different Most drama occurred far from the battlefield in the lives of millions who were not in the front lines of glorious charges into the mouths of cannon. The most surprising thing about the WWII era—and contrary to the rosy perceptions offered by some writing on the subject—was despite the unprecedented communal effort required to wage global war, divisive social issues were not put on hold for the duration in any of the combatant nations. To make matters worse, the bodies of those who die from the poison sometimes return as foul undead monstrosities. But striving for that accuracy means I sometimes edit things as I find new info.
