To the Israelis it looked like a desperate national leader looking to make a headline of success. Many of these soldiers were released already and in the days before e-mail and cell phones they could not be easily recalled. Brookings

Institution, July

CenterforDefenseInformationAsiaForum.Following the war Israel was amazed to learn from their prisoners just how ill-informed they were of the reason they marched out into the desert. The decision makers would be less willing to commit to another expensive mobilization, especially as Israeli elections were October 28th.
