Thanks, Will! On their journey, Aram and Makasa not only meet fascinating denizens of Azeroth who help them along the way, but they are pursued by dangerous foes who will stop at nothing to uncover the secrets that Aram protects. Philadelphia marked it as to-read Jun 05, I know everyone says that every person has a book inside them, but I am not sure I am. The only one who believed she could do something important with her life. Okay, there's no secret that I'm a big fan of Warcraft universe and since this book offered a new story with all new characters I bought it without a second thought. I imagine a lot of them are controlled by the publishing houses, but I know that story feels unfinished and doesn't answer all the questions it seems to present the reader - and while it is part of a proposed series it doesn't stand well on its own, and that's a pet peeve of.
